  - 1.3 Persons over the age limit for active service in the new defence and security forces;
  - 1.4 Child soldiers;
  - 1.5 Combatants' ranks and hierarchy.

E. Definitions

1. "Belligerents" means:
  - 1.1 The Transitional Government;
  - 1.2 CNDD-FDD and PALIPEHUTU-FNL.
2. "Ceasefire" means:
  - 2.1 The cessation of all hostilities and all operations linked to the fighting and the cessation of paramilitary actions by all the belligerents, whether they are for or against the signatories to the Ceasefire Agreement and the civilian population in general. "The ceasefire" also means:
    - 2.1.1 The suspension of the supply of ammunition and weapons;
    - 2.1.2 The prohibition of the distribution of lethal logistical supplies to or from any armed forces;
    - 2.1.3 That, after the signing of the Ceasefire Agreement, the parties will address the issue of prisoners of war and political prisoners;
    - 2.1.4 The prohibition of mine-laying operations and of operations to obstruct demining;
    - 2.1.5 The cessation of all propaganda between the parties and of incitement to ethnic hatred both inside and outside the country;

- 2.1.6 The cessation of all acts of violence against the civilian population, acts of vengeance, summary executions, torture, harassment, detention or persecution of civilians based on their ethnic origin, religious beliefs or political affiliation, arming of civilians, use of child soldiers, sexual violence and sponsoring and encouraging terrorists or genocidal ideologies;
  - 2.1.7 The cessation of all air, land and lake attacks and all acts of sabotage;
  - 2.1.8 The cessation of any action that may hinder the proper implementation of the peace process.
- 3. “Disengagement of forces” means:
    - 3.1 The breaking of tactical contact between the opposing military forces of the signatories to this Agreement, at places where they are in direct contact.
  - 4. “Distance of separation” means:
    - 4.1 A minimum distance set between opposing forces, with no armed presence in the zone separating them.
  - 5. “Disengagement areas” means:
    - 5.1 Areas designated in the Agreement or subsequently by the Implementation Monitoring Committee as areas in which forces must be assembled for purposes of control and security of the signatories to the Agreement. Disengagement areas may be geographical areas or fixed sites such as barracks or other installations.
  - 6. “Security zones” refers to:
    - 6.1 Zones where there are no armed personnel other than members of international peacekeeping operations.
  - 7. “Safety corridors” refers to:
    - 7.1 Corridors agreed upon by the parties, who ensure that a designated person or entity may move freely and in complete safety within them.

11. "Cessation of hostilities" means:
  - 11.1 The decision by the belligerents temporarily to cease all their military actions or any actions that may be interpreted as hostile to the other signatories and/or the civilian population. This entails neither disengagement of forces nor disarmament. The cessation of hostilities must take effect immediately upon its signing or proclamation. It is a stage leading to the conclusion of a final Ceasefire Agreement.
  - 11.2 "Disarmament, demobilization and reintegration programmes" are:
  - 11.3 Programmes based on the assumption that demobilization and reintegration will not occur spontaneously and that, unless these processes are put in place, their absence might derail or undermine the achievements of a peace process. They are normally divided into short-, medium- and long-term programmes and generally focus on the transition from a state of war to a state of peace and normal civilian life. They usually address food problems and seek to ensure substantial daily supplies until long-term programmes ensure self-sufficiency.
12. "Integration" means:
