Statement on Initial Agreement between KNU and Burmese Government

- The 19-member KNU delegation held talks with Railways Minister, U Aung Min, and other representatives of the Burmese government on 12-1-2012, in Pa-an.
- The KNU delegation reached an initial agreement with the Burmese government's representatives towards a ceasefire agreement. When the delegation returns to our headquarters, the KNU leadership will discuss about subsequent steps required in this dialogue with the Burmese government.
- The KNU welcomes the report by its delegation that the Burmese government's representatives agreed, in principle, to the eleven-point proposal, which the KNU presented in the talks. The KNU leadership will take further steps to continue concrete discussions on how the terms and conditions of the proposal will be materialized on the ground, in detail, before both sides can agree on the final ceasefire agreement.
- The eleven points of the KNU proposal are:
  1. Establish a nationwide ceasefire and immediately cease military operations in ethnic areas.
  2. Guarantee the human rights and safety of all civilians.
  3. Build trust among the people.
  4. Support the basic needs of the people and ensure that development projects have the full participation and support of local villagers.
  5. Allow national media outlets to participate in the peace processes, in order to provide accurate information about developments.
  6. Immediately stop forced labor, arbitrary taxation and extortion of villagers.
  7. Release all political prisoners and provide solutions to settle land rights issue.
  8. Set out principles for all parties to ensure a genuine peace process.
  9. Ensure the legitimacy of representatives involved in negotiations, provide adequate time for their consultation with respective constituencies and establish a clear role for third parties.
  10. Initiate a plan for monitoring and ensuring the transparency of the peace process.
  11. Establish a flexible process that guarantees progress towards sustainable peace, and in which all parties speak straightforwardly and avoid using words that may be misinterpreted.
